

Frequently Asked Questions about the ERASMUS+ Program

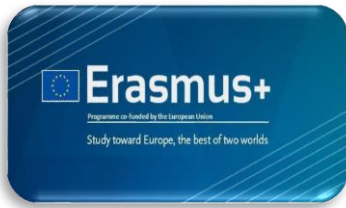

Application

- My major is not listed. What shall I do?
 - You can search for suitable courses, if you find enough courses (more than 18 ECTS), you can discuss the options with your Exchange Coordinator and send an email to scholarship.coordinator@gju.edu.jo informing the Scholarship Coordinator about suitable options. Afterwards you can submit your application.

- What does ECTS mean?
 - European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System
 - 1 Credit Hour (GJU) equals 1,5 ECTS.

- What does the scholarship cover?
 - Travel lump sum (depending on the host university)
 - A monthly grant (depending on the host university)
 - You can find the details on the list of Partner Universities
 - It is up to the scholarship holder for which purposes he/she uses the monthly grant

- What does the scholarship NOT COVER?
 - Visa fees (for German-visas: Provide a letter from your host university stating that you are an ERASMUS scholarship holder and you receive a visa fee exemption)
 - Health insurance
 - Housing

- I don't have the required language certificate? Can I still apply?
 - The language level indicated on the Partner universities' list is an asset. You can apply without the required language level. We recommend to leave a comment at the end of the application indicating when you are planning your next B1 or B2 exam.

- What happens after I submitted my application?
 - Your application will be screened regarding the criteria mentioned on our homepage. If your overall score belongs to the 25% of your major, you will receive an invitation to our Assessment Center.
 - In case we unfortunately can't invite you, you will receive a rejection letter.

- What do I have to prepare for the Assessment Center?
 - Make sure you know why you applied for the program and that you have a stable internet connection and a quiet surrounding.

- How long does the Assessment Center take?
 - One hour

- I have already received an ERASMUS+ scholarship, can I apply?
 - Yes.

- I receive a Jordanian scholarship, can I apply?
 - Yes.

- I am a Master student. Can I apply?
 - University of Bologna offers seats for M.A. Social Work students.

- I receive a DAAD scholarship at the same time, can I apply?
 - No

- What can I do if my application was rejected?
 - Here we explain our complaint policy:
<http://www.gju.edu.jo/content/scholarship-feedback-appeal-mechanism-11715>

- What will happen after I accepted the scholarship?
 - The International Office nominates you at the host university. Afterwards you will have to apply at the host university. Make sure you read carefully through the information provided from the host university and don't miss the deadline.

Before Mobility

- What do I have to prepare?
 - Contact your Exchange Coordinator of your school and prepare your ERASMUS+ Learning Agreement (for German seats: Please take into consideration that you have to fill out two different Learning Agreements, one ERASMUS+ and one for MYGJU).

- Whom shall I contact for housing issues?
 - Please look for housing options on the website of your host university or ask at the International Office of your host university.

- What is a Grant Agreement?
 - The Grant Agreement is the financial declaration which details the duration of your mobility period, the funding and payment plan. Please read the document carefully and fill in the missing information. Please bring the original signed document to your host university.

➤ Will I be enrolled at GJU during my ERASMUS+ Semester?

- You can postpone your semester at GJU, but you need to stay enrolled. Please bring a proof of enrolment to your host university.

During Mobility

➤ How can I get the ERASMUS+ money?

- Bank details: Upon your arrival, we kindly ask you to open a bank account with a local bank to which the Erasmus funds shall be transferred. To open a bank account, you have to bring your Jordanian tax number.
- Having received all documents, the host university will transfer 80% of the scholarship to your bank account.
- 30 days before the end of your semester, you will receive an invitation to an online EU survey. Having submitted this EU survey, you will receive the outstanding balance.

➤ What shall I do, when I want to change courses?

- If you change your courses, these changes have to be documented in the Learning Agreement (section: during the mobility).

After Mobility

- Around 4 weeks after the examination period, we will issue a Transcript of Record and send it to you and the GJU. With this Transcript of Records and the Learning Agreement, you can request the recognition of the earned credits for your studies at the GJU. Please contact your International Office about the respective procedure.